Republican National Nominations:

FOR PRESIDENT,

BENJAMIN HARRISON.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,

WHELAN REID.

Republican State Nominations:

FOR GOVERNOR,

LEVI K. FULLER, of Brattleboro.

FOR LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR,

F. STEWART STRANAHAN, of St. Albans.

FOR SECRETARY OF STATE,

CHAUNCEY W. BROWNELL, of Burlington.

FOR STATE TREASURER,

HENRY F. FIELD, of Rutland.

FOR AUDITOR OF ACCOUNTS,

FRANKLIN D. HALE, of Lunenburg.

FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS,

FREDERICK W. BALDWIN, Barton.

JOHN V. CARNEY, Bennington.

CHARLES M. WILDS, Middlebury.

EZRA A. PARKS, Waterford.

FOR MEMBER OF CONGRESS,

(Second District.)

WILLIAM W. GROUT, Barton.

The silver question is going to figure conspicuously in the campaign in spite of desperate democratic efforts to stifle or ignore it. The business men of the country will be called upon to choose between a party whose representatives in the senate and the house cast a majority of 50 for free coinage and a party whose representatives cast a majority of 73 against it.
We fancy it will not take them long to make up their minds as to the party which will best promote their interests.

The cause of Indian education has been shabbily treated by congress.
It is a matter of vital importance to the Indians, and one in which every philanthropic mind is deeply interested. The commissioner of Indian Affairs asked this year for $2,917,060 for this purpose, but congress saw fit to reduce the amount by more than $600,000; apparently for no reason but that the democrats might make a record for "economy." A cut of $600,000 in the item for Indian education and a river and harbor bill involving an outlay of $50,000,000 form an instructive contrast.

President Harrison by a proclamation issued recently calls for the observance of October 21 this year as the 400th anniversary of Columbus' great discovery. With characteristic tactfulness Mr. Harrison directs attention to the importance of this holiday, and emphasizes the part which the schools should take in the demonstration. The proclamation is more than a merely formal announcement.
It is a compact statement of the vital meaning of Discoverer's Day, marked by that grace of style which is noteworthy in all the president's papers and addresses.

Mr. William F. Harry has been made chairman of the Democratic National Committee with full power.
That is to say, he is authorized to appoint an Executive Committee, a Campaign Committee, and an Advisory Committee. All the party machinery is to be under the control of this one man, whose experience in political management has been limited, to say the least. This plan, of campaign is understood to be of Mr. Whitney's devising. Mr. Harry is a Cleveland man, and of course it is peculiarly fitting that the Cleveland wing of the party should assume the full responsibility for the canvass.

The first removal of a federal officeholder in this state made by Cleveland's administration was Sylvanus Hindes, then postmaster at North Hyde Park. This removal was made by "Gen." Stevenson at the instance of Atkins & Co. Mr. Hindes was a soldier in the 11th Vermont regiment and lost both hands in a battle. His removal from a $400 office was made because he was a republican, and it was the most heartless of any within our knowledge. --Free Press.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CONVEN- TION.

The county convention called to be held at Barton, July 30, fell on a very agreeable day and called out many of the leading men of the party and county. Convention was pleasantly convened in Page's Opera Hall and was called to order by Geo. W. Aiken of Troy, who appointed O. C. Miller of Newport, temporary chairman. Mr.
Miller accepted the chair with appropriate remarks. Martin Riordan of Barton was selected as secretary. It was moved by P. J. Farrell, Esq., of Newport that the chair appoint a committee on resolutions and the motion was carried. The chair appointed as such committee P. J. Farrell of Newport; Martin Riordan of Barton and F. T. Hammond of Troy. It was moved that the temporary organization be made the permanent organization and the motion prevailed. It was moved by Mr. Aiken that the convention take a temporary recess, while delegates of the various towns represented hold meetings and select three men from each town who should constitute the nominating committee of the convention for the selection of a set of county officers. The convention adjourned till 1:30 p. m.

Reassembling in the afternoon the following were made vice presidents and invited to a seat on the stand: O. Cutler, Barton; Walter Burke, Albany; Wyram Wylie, Craftsbury; D. P. Gordon, Barton; H. McLellan, Glover; Amos Cook, Glover; F. Farley, Barton; J. B. Calderwood, Greensboro; John Kelley, Derby; Lucius Day, Jay; S. Clough, Irasburgh; Orson Stone of Westfield.

The committee on nominations, J. W.
Currier, chairman, submitted the following report which was adopted without discussion or dissent:

For senators, F. M. Sherman of Newport, T. M. Gallagher of Craftsbury.
For assistant judges, J. B. Calderwood, Greensboro, O. C. Miller of Newport.
For State's Attorney, O. S. Annis of Troy.

For Sheriff, H. C. Pierce of Barton.
For Bailiff, John Smith of Lowell.
For Judge of Probate, Wyram Wylie of Craftsbury.

For Commissioner, E. T. Seaver of Troy.

The committee on resolutions, P. J.
Farrell, chairman, submitted the following:

We, the democrats of Orleans County, in Convention assembled, send greeting to the democrat of the State and Nation and re-assert our adherence to democratic principles.

We denounce the McKinley Tariff Act, as legislation which gives an unfair advantage to a few at the expense of the masses.

We are unalterably opposed to the Lodge Force Bill, so-called, or any similar legislation, as being a direct blow at the rights of the people to govern themselves, and antagonistic to the spirit in which our government was founded.

We recommend a uniform system of building the highways with a view to their general improvement.

And we stand ready to support with our whole might, any legislation looking to better facilities for education, firmly believing that in the enlightenment of the people rests the security of their rights and the supremacy of democratic principles.

We adopt the platforms of the late Democratic National and State Conventions and promise our united support to the candidates nominated by those conventions.

We also pledge our support to the nominations of this convention.

The following are the county and town committees:

County committee: G. W. Aiken of Troy; R. M. Lyon of Craftsbury, A. P.
Bean of Glover.

The town committees:

Albany--J. J. Watters, J. A. Brown,
J. B. Sinon.

Barton--H. P. Cook, E. H. Lathrop, J. B. Cassidy.

Brownington--D. H. Randall, C. C.
Clark, J. A. Smith.

Coventry--W. H. Tibbetts, L. Brown, S. P. Bean.

Charleston--J. O. Shedd, Dr. Cushman.

Craftsbury--John Kier, A. B. Pike, E. B. Massey.

Derby--J. E. Kelley, D. C. Stevens, D. M. Bixby.

Glover--A. P. Bean, H. M. Salmon, J. E. Dwinell.

Greensboro--S. P. Pinney, John Garvin, Alphonso Barber.

Holland--Geo. H. Tice.

Irassburgh--John Ord, S. E. Clough, M. R. Tibbetts.

Jay--C. D. Ovitt, A. Sisco, Lucius Day.

Lowell--L. R. Wellman, F. D. Green, Winchester.

Troy--E. T. Seaver, F. E. Burbank, Ira Powers.

Newport--O. C. Miller, Wm. Hunt, Patrick Logan.

Westfield, J. B. Boutwell, O. H. Hoyt,
A. Austin.

The convention was disappointed in the absence of the speakers announced, but supplied their places with Elisha May, Esq. of St. Johnsbury and P. J. Farrell, Esq. of Newport, both gentlemen being obliged, under the circumstances, to speak almost without preparation. Mr. May is a pleasing and entertaining speaker and discussed political matters from his standpoint. He dwelt at some length on tariff issues and then gave time to the discussion of affairs in the State. He referred to the salaries and other necessary expense of governors and stated that in later times certain governors have drawn heavily and, as he thought, unlawfully on the state treasury. He also declared that the expense of the state government had been largely increased in the last four years. Mr. May had many good points but his piece seemed to scatter a little, probably from want of preparation.

Mr. Farrell spoke under some embarrassment, but nevertheless well.
His arguments for the greater part were logical, and his facts and statements were well put. He believes that the tariff does not benefit the laboring classes, while it does help, as he thinks, the richer classes. We regret that time does not permit mit a fuller report of the addresses.

The democrats may congratulate themselves on a very pleasant and harmonious gathering. The local committee suspended a large Cleveland and Stevenson flag, decorated the hall and provided good music by the band of this village, while the hotels gave excellent dinners.

The ticket is a very good one in every respect, the men selected being among the best citizens of the county.
Mr. Sherman, nominee for senator, is a well-known citizen and business man of Newport; Mr. Gallagher is a bright farmer and a successful business man; J. B. Calderwood of Greensboro would make, if elected to the place, a man who would fill his chair in more sensible than one; O. C. Miller, his associate, knows considerable law and a great deal about business matters. O. S. Annis, nominated for State's Attorney, is a rising lawyer who has the respect and good will of all who know him.

The only known reason why H. C.
Pierce, nominee for sheriff, will not get the election, is the fact that he persists in remaining in the minority party. If Wyram Wylie, nominee for Judge of Probate, should be elected to the place, there will be an honest administration of that important office. The president of the convention, Mr. Miller, in discussing the propriety of dismissing a nominee, remarked that there was probably "no danger of his election," and we may be pardoned for predicting that the county must necessarily be deprived of the benefits which might accrue from the election of this ticket from the fact that it is hopelessly republican.

The treasury department has received a special report from Special Agent Ayer, in which the latter says the production of tin and tern plates for the quarter ending June 30, as shown by the sworn statements of manufacturers, was over 8,000,000 pounds, as against 3,004,087 pounds during the previous quarter and about 5,240,000 pounds for the preceding nine months. Mr. Ayer also reports that the Temescal tin mines of California, which the democrats have been pronouncing a failure, are being worked by 110 men, and that a large amount of machinery is being put into the business. What have the tin plate liars to say to this?

The Inman line steamer City of Paris, Capt. Frederick Watkins, which left Liverpool on July 20 and Queenstown 21, arrived in New York July 27, having completed the passage from Daunt's Rock to Sandy Hook lightship in 5 days, 15 hours and 58 minutes, beating the time of the White Star liner Teutonic, which held the record made August last of 5 days, 16 hours and 31 minutes by 33 minutes.

The City of Paris, on the third and fifth days' runs, beat the Teutonic's best day's run of 517 miles.
